

Jonathan Cooper, MSc CMgr MSyl FCMI Dip CILA

Loss Adjuster and Pre-Risk Surveyor

Professional Summary

Jonathan Cooper, a distinguished Pre-Risk Surveyor and Loss Adjuster at Adjusteck, brings extensive expertise in risk, security, and insurance. Specializing in diverse classes of business and handling significant claims globally, he has addressed challenges from vehicle attacks to thefts of valuables. Holding a prestigious MSc in Security Management and Chartered Manager Status, he stands out as one of the most experienced individuals in his field, demonstrating a commitment to excellence in risk management and security.

Contact Information

Mobile: +44 (0)7490 969032

LinkedIn

Qualifications

- Fellow of the Chartered Management Institute
- Diploma Member of the Chartered Institute of Loss Adjusters
- Member of the Security Institute
- International Federation of Adjusting Associations
- Association of Certified Fraud Examiners

Education

- Chartered Status with the Chartered Management Institute – Distinction and Fellow Status awarded – May 2024
- MSc Security Management: From the Institute of Criminal Justice Studies at Portsmouth University. Merit – Oct. 2018
- Diploma Chartered Institute of Loss Adjusters – CILA – April 2014
- Certificate of Higher Education – International Business – Southampton Institute – 2001

Classes of Business

- Cash In Transit
- Jewelers' Block
- Valuable / Vulnerable Cargo
- General Specie
- General Liability
- Mining

Significant Claims Handled Worldwide

- Vehicle Attacks in Bulgaria and Slovakia
- Vehicle Drive Away in Kenya
- "Theft" of Diamonds in Zambia
- Loss of Cheques in UAE
- Vehicle Drive Away in Lebanon
- Cash in Transit Robberies in Trinidad
- ATM Thefts in Tanzania
- Various Branch Attacks in Africa, UK, and Europe